

IELTS Writing Task 1 Introduction

The chart below shows the sales for a coffee shop in a town in the UK from 2000 to 2020.

WRITING

Task-1:

1 → Writing a suitable Introduction

Example Intro:

The diagram below give the information for the sales of, for example tea, coffee, hot chocolate, food in a cafe, which locates in an English village, from 2000 to 2020. Units measure in Pounds Sterling.

- be more specific about the diagram - bar chart
- below - when we writing there is nothing below, so wipe it
- give - will be gives
- the - not required
- for - should be about
- the sales - (missing info) would be - the monthly sales
- for example - in the intro, we don't need example, we need info.
  - so remove the it.
- item/category - either name the items (if they are few) or
  - make a category of x items
  - items and their category is not acceptable.
- a cafe - missing info - name the coffee shop if it is given
- which locates in - would be - which is located in
- an English village - would be - a British town
- and from 2000 to 2020 - paraphrase it - between 2000 and 2020

- Units measure - would be - units are measured in → Pounds Sterling - would be - pounds sterling (in <sup>smaller</sup> lower letter when using in the sentence).

Final Introduction:

The bar chart <sup>1</sup>gives <sup>2</sup>information about the typical monthly sales of coffee, tea, hot chocolate, sandwiches, cakes and soup <sup>3</sup>for <sup>4</sup>Cuppa Coffee Shop, <sup>5</sup>which is located in a British town, <sup>6</sup>between 2000 and 2020. Units are measured in pounds sterling.

Other paraphrasing options:

- 1 → ~~gives~~ shows / gives information about / illustrates
- 2 → ~~informa~~ the amount of money made from the sales.
- 3 → in a typical month
- 4 → in
- 5 → located in
- 6 → in 2000, 2010 and 2020.
